

PEER SUPPORT

SPECIALIST CERTIFICATION

Peer Support
Specialists bring hope by sharing their experiences and promoting a sense of belonging.

SUPPORT FROM SOMEONE WHO'S BEEN THERE

Please reach out to peersupport@nd.gov

WHY CERTIFICATION?

Certification aims to standardize training and improve and regulate reimbursement while meeting the growing demand for behavioral health supportive services in North Dakota. The North Dakota Department of Human Services' Behavioral Health Division certifies Peer Support Specialists in the state.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CERTIFIED?

1

Attend a peer support specialist training. To find out more information about upcoming trainings visit behavioralhealth.nd.gov/addiction/peer-support.

2

Submit an application, including all required attachments. Find the application and other requirements here behavioralhealth.nd.gov/addiction/peer-support/certification.